Charcuterie shar-KOO-ter-ee

Charcuterie is an assortment of cured meats and cheeses usually enjoyed with a combination of pickled elements such as olives, all of which are meant to be served at room temperature. These bite size proteins are paired with breads and crackers into the perfect bite with the help of condiments to elevate the richness of the meat and cheese pairing. Charcuterie boards and boxes refers to how that perfect bite is staged onto a platter or box with all ingredients arranged in an artful fashion. The decorative combination of ingredients displays the decadence that is charcuterie. Graze Craze is all about what is known as graze style charcuterie. Graze style charcuterie consists of high protein from the cured meats and chesses combined with farm fresh produce. This combination makes your eyes and taste buds dance as you search for the perfect balance between the hearty meats and cheeses and the bounty of raw produce.

The Graze Craze Opportunity

While making charcuterie boards is a hobby for some, many consumers find the process time-consuming and intimidating. Graze Craze allows them to delight in boards that look just like the ones they favor online but tastes even better. Customers love us for the quality of our products because they know that each Graze Craze charcuterie board is guaranteed to be fresh and delicious. They also value that they can take advantage of delivery options in each of the areas we serve—we have taken convenience to a new level!

Graze Craze was founded by an U.S. Air Force veteran with experience in the food industry, who saw the demand for high-quality, convenient charcuterie boards. After successfully testing out her concept, she opened her initial locations and immediately built her customer base.

Graze Craze is the newest brand to join the United Franchise Group (UFG) affiliated family of brands. UFG is a franchising powerhouse that manages numerous growing brands such as Signarama and Venture X. With 35+ years in the franchising industry, they have the knowledge and experience to streamline the process of opening new locations. They know how to bring newcomers into a business, show them the ropes, and set them on the right track towards growth.
